

Leadership for a Fractured World:

How to Cross boundaries, Build bridges and Lead Change

Led by Harvard University Professor

Dr. Dean Williams

AGENDA

---

Saturday 16th June 2018

Arrival : 09:30

09:30 – 10:00	Registration - Check In
10:00 – 10:10	Opening Remarks
10:10 – 11:30	Why leaders need to be “global change agents” Presenting a new framework for understanding the functions of leadership, power, and authority
11:30 – 11:45	Coffee break
11:45 – 13:15	The diagnostic work of leadership: Distinguishing technical and adaptive challenges The power of the tribal impulse The boundary work of leadership
13:15 – 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 – 15:30	Case study on an adaptive challenge
15:30 – 15:45	Coffee break
15:45 – 17:15	Intervention and mobilization: Interrupting the drift and managing attention The importance of partnership networks
17:15 – 17:30	Coffee break
17:30 – 18:15	Generating “heat” and managing the “disequilibrium” of change

Sunday 17th June 2018

Arrival : 10:00

10:00 – 11:30	The change agent as conversation manager Managing the interpretation of the adaptive challenge
11:30 – 11:45	Coffee break
11:45 – 13:15	Working through differences Dealing with resistance and change avoidance behavior
13:15 – 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 – 15:30	The artistry of leadership: Leading creatively and the importance of imagination, exploration and experimentation Keeping the fire burning: Dealing with the stress of being an agent of change
15:30 – 15:45	Coffee break
15:45 – 17:30	Wisdom and leadership: Expanding personal boundaries
17:30 – 18:15	Cheese and Wine Reception - Certification of Attendance Awarding

---

Sponsored by

Supported by

